Excerpt: .served until mustered out November 9, 1898. James E. Payne. Frank B. Pauley. Captain Charles T. O'Brien. Company A. Charles Francis O'Brien was born in Worcester, Mass., November 14, 1867, and was educated in the public schools of that city. In September, 1883, he removed to Kansas City and was employed in a clothing store until the following year, when he secured a position as clerk in Bradstreet's Commercial Agency. Applying himself here with notable care and industry he soon raised himself to the place of chief clerk. In 1885, fired with the hope of acquiring wealth through the great real estate boom that was then setting ninety per cent of Kansas City wild, he gave up his situation with Bradstreets and associated himself with Mr. George Law, subsequently engaging in the real estate business for himself. When the collapse came he was strictly in it, but pulled through without material loss. In 1892 he engaged in newspaper work on the Times. In 1893 he severed his connection with that paper and moved to California with his mother and lived near Los Angeles until the Fall of 1896, when he returned to Kansas City, reaching here in October. He easily secured his old position on the Times and was soon advanced to the work of city editor, a place he filled with marked ability. He was thus engaged when war was declared against Spain. As soon as Gen. Moore began the...
