Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Sound Steps to Reading Storybook contains the full text of the story fragment that begins each lesson. These stories should be read by the parent or teacher later on the same day after the lesson has been completed. Each story features the target sound (phoneme) for that lesson. The stories are humorous and written in rhyme. Trials in the U.S. and the U.K showed that children love them. Many children can begin reading these stories on their own (with a little help) about midway through the program. This is highly motivating. By the end of the program all children can read these stories with ease. The stories will work well with any synthetic phonics program that teaches the spelling alternatives for the sounds in English. Here is a story sample. Can you discover what sound is featured in this story? Find all the spellings for this sound. [Mole, as you see by the title, does not know how to spell business. ] Sample text from Mole s Home Biznis Mole poked his nose out of his hole He reached for his Daily Globe that was stuck in the snow. Well, well. It s cold, it s cold. I d better go down below. As mole went into his underground burrow his face had a frown, his forehead a furrow. He was, as usual, alone at home. Mole mumbled, Home alone. Home alone. Mole had a habit of saying things over, and over, and over. He sighed, Life is too dull. Life is too slow for such a talented fellow. I need a goal. I need a goal. I can t always be home alone in my hole....
