Hitherto the Egyptians had proceeded ; and had Moses come to them, and could only have assured them, that he had received a command from God in a dreamj or by a vision, or by a voice, or any other revelation ; neither Pharaoh, nor his wise men, would have regarded him at all, but have concluded, that some natural prodigy had happened; for such they would, most probably, have imagined the bush on fire to be, and have supposed that Moses had made a political use of it ; and for this reason Pharaoh bade him show a miracle ; knowing, that if the Deity really sent him, he could give this proof of it. Hereupon God enabled Moses to work several very extraordinary signs and wonders, such as had never been seen or heard of in the world...
