Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.An anthology from members of Northern California Publishers Authors, the book Golden Prose Poetry delivers bold, imaginative short stories alongside true tales, travelogues and sentimental free verse. You ll experience a riot of emotions. Both entertaining and humorous, this book is a must read for a plane ride, a summer vacation or a stint on the beach. For example, Margo King Lenson explores the unfulfilled promise of a literary spell in her story Sexing the Professor, set at Dominican College in Marin County. Then the book takes readers to Peru, where Kimberly A. Edwards tells about an awkward train ride in her story Redeemed in the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Awkward would be a generous feeling for Jeff Parsons, who reveals what it is like to be nearly naked in a hotel lobby. Learn to be wary of sleepwalkers by laughing through his account of a stay at a Pennsylvania Hilton. He writes Ain t Nothing Gonna Break My Stride. Award-winning writer Frances Kakugawa shares advice for authors in her essay Junkyard for Writers, which...
