In the first sentence there is a word that shows possession. Is it singular or plural? How is the possession shown? In the other sentences there are plural words that show possession. How is the possession shown? Notice with what letter these plural words end. Make a rule for writing the possessive plural of words that end in s. Be ready to write the above sentences from dictation. LESSON LIV POSSESSIVE PLURAL (Continued) Read: --In rich men s halls the fire is piled, And ermine robes keep out the weather; In poor men s huts the fire is low, Through broken panes the keen winds blow, And young and old are cold together.--Mary Howitt. The rats. Made nests inside men s Sunday hats And even spoiled the women s chats.--Browning. In the first selection what word shows possession? How? Is it singular or plural? What words show possession in the second selection? How? Are they singular or plural? All plural words that do not end in s form the possessive as these words do. Make a rule for forming the possessive plural of words that do not end in s. Dictation: --1. From dewy lanes at morning The grapes sweet odors rise. 2. The rich man s son inherits cares; What does the poor man s son inherit? 3. Ulysses filled the men s ears with wax that they might not hear the sirens voices. 4. Mr. Longfellow wrote a poem called The Children...
