Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Blazing the Trail Through the Rockies: The Story of Walter Moberly and His Share in the Making of Vancouver I have been very much interested in Moberly s recollections with reference to events nearly all of which I pretty well know by heart. I am so glad to see that he has given you, for publication, an account of his long and varied experiences in British Columbia, experiences which have been of great value to the province. In these generous terms of appreciation of Mr. Walter Moberly s services to this province, the Hon. Edgar Dewdney wrote me two months ago, at the time that the veteran explorer s reminiscences were appearing Sunday by Sunday. Mr. Dewdney, who has himself rendered great services, not only to this province, but to the Dominion at large, as trail-maker, explorer and administrator, knew Mr. Moberly intimately as a comrade in the early, strenuous days of which this story treats. Appreciation from such a source is, therefore, of much value. I quote this extract as most representative of the...
