Reviews

This book is very gripping and exciting. I was able to comprehend everything out of this written publication. You will not truly feel monotony at any time of your respective time (that's what catalogs are for concerning should you question me).

Excerpt: . . . the state, and so far as is compatible with public affairs, that the business of the state, parishes and municipalities be suspended, so that all public officers may assist in making the celebration the success the occasion deserves. In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the state, this 6th day of April, 1912. J. Y. SANDERS, Governor. New Orleans, La., April 10th, 1912. To the Citizens of New Orleans: The centennial anniversary of the admission of Louisiana as a State of the United States will be celebrated on April 30th, 1912, in accordance with Act No. 107 of the General Assembly of Louisiana of 1910, with the assistance of the city of New Orleans in its official capacity, under the auspices of the Louisiana Historical Society. All the ceremonies will be presided over by the Governor of the State, who, by his proclamation, dated April 6th, 1912, has asked all the people of the state to participate, those not able to come to the city of New Orleans being requested to have some form of celebration at their homes, and he has directed, in so far as same is compatible with public business, that all official functions be dispensed with, and also that there be a holiday in all the public schools of the state, and in this I concur in so far as the city of New Orleans is concerned. The...
