Val Tobin, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Michael Valiant, Agency black ops assassin, deals death without question. He knows it's all in the name of duty and the fight against terror, particularly at a time when the earth is as close as it's ever been to self-destructing. But when his orders include silencing members of a UFO group who look less like terrorists and more like housewives and UFO buffs, he decides to do some digging. His curiosity arouses the ire of his boss and his partner, who warn Michael that his actions are putting him in danger. When Michael's wife dies in what appears to be a traffic accident, Michael, with his partner's help and support, pushes aside his doubts and immerses himself in the jobs he needs to complete. Carolyn Fairchild, Psychic medium and believer in angels, lives happy and contented in a nice home in Newmarket, Ontario, with her husband and daughter. All Carolyn wants is to live in peaceful obscurity. When Carolyn loses her husband under suspicious circumstances, and other members of her group die or disappear, Carolyn grows desperate to uncover the truth and save herself and her daughter. Ordered to kidnap Carolyn and turn her over to the Agency, Michael confronts Carolyn in her home, ready to complete his assignment. But when Carolyn connects to Michael's dead wife and reveals to him the truth about her death, Carolyn forces him to choose between saving himself and doing what's right. Unaware that they are repeating a pattern enacted over many lifetimes, Michael and Carolyn must find a way to break the cycle, or continue playing it out over lifetimes to come. A New...
