To those who have had experience in the winding-up of Joint Stock Companies, the two processes may be said to be analogous to a compulsory winding-up by the Court of Chancery, or a voluntary winding-up by the company under the supervision of the court. The creditors are also permitted to accept a debtor's proposal for payment of a composition without bankruptcy or liquidation of the debtors affairs, should a certain majority of the creditors think it advisable to do so. Whilst fraudulent bankrupts and debtors are liable to be very efficaciously and severely handled, the legislature has deemed it advisable, for the first time in the history of our jurisprudence, to abolish the general right of a creditor to arrest and imprison the body of his debtor. The practical machinery introduced for the purpose of working these principles, is the introduction of a chief or sole judge of the Court of Bankruptcy and the abolition of all unnecessary officialism. The appointment of a chief judge or head of the Bankruptcy Court, is a...
