The Son of God, Who rises through His own power. Resurrexit, non est hic: videte locum ubi posuerunt eum. The Gospel announces this fact: Christ Himself announces it in the Introit. The Church puts the words of Psalm 138 in a proper and deeply significant sensus accommodalus, into the mouth of the risen Christ Who announces His own deed. Christ announces Himself solemnly as the victorious Son of God. He addresses, as it were, at His resurrection, the Father in Heaven and man on earth in the words: resurrexi et adhuc sum tecum, alleluja: I rose up (oh God!) and am still with Thee (in spite of the dreadful suflering and death, united to Thee, oh God!) Alleluia! Thou hast placed thine omnipotent hand upon me! Alleluia. Wonderful is thy wisdom, thy divine knowledge, thine intelligence, thy plan and thy designs...

Reviews

The most effective publication i at any time read. We have study and i am sure that i will likely to read yet again once again in the foreseeable future. You will not truly feel monotony at anytime of your time (that's what catalogs are for about in the event you request me).
