

Take-Home Card
Welcome to Oxford Reading Tree Fireflies!

Fire Stage 7

What is this book about?
This is a non-fiction book about famous fires around the world. It tells you the dates and locations of these fires and whether they occurred naturally or deliberately.

Talk together

- Think about times you have heard about fires in the news. Can you ever imagine what it would be like to be involved in a fire? Look at the cover of this book and read the cover notes. Who is the author of this book? What does the picture on the front of this book make you think of?

Read the book

- Encourage your child to hold the book and turn pages.
- Begin to read the book by looking at the contents page, and finding out what you will be reading about.
- Chat about the pages you are looking forward to reading.
- Browse through the book and listen to your child recall aspects of the text shared with friends in group reading at school. Do they recall any of the really difficult words and what they meant?
- Offer to take it in turns to read through the book, page by page. Your child will benefit from hearing different voices taking turns, and early information in the book will help them understand later sections.
- When reading, if your child finds a word difficult, suggest that they mix it out and read on until the end of the sentence. Can they guess the word that is missing? Help them to use the phonics they have learned to sound out the word if necessary.
